

Proclamation Recognizing the Project Management Institute, Pikes Peak Regional Chapter

- WHEREAS, for the last 20 years, the Project Management Institute, Pikes Peak Regional Chapter, has been at the forefront providing support for project management professionals throughout El Paso County and all of Southern Colorado; and
- WHEREAS, the Project Management Institute, Pikes Peak Regional Chapter, is one of the more than 300 chapters across the world whose volunteers tirelessly serve their communities; and
- WHEREAS, these project managers work to ensure the highest of professional standards, providing critical expertise in the building of communities, improving quality of life, enhancing leadership and completing projects that strengthen our economy; and
- WHEREAS, having a strong project management focus and adhering to professional practices within is necessary to ensure that correct projects are planned and that they are executed properly in order to provide the best results in an efficient manner; and
- WHEREAS, the Project Management Institute, Pikes Peak Regional Chapter, is working to raise the awareness and quality of the project management disciplines and practices; and
- WHEREAS, these dedicated professionals exemplify the importance of perpetually enhancing the value of leadership, cooperation, creativity, innovation, and perseverance.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of County Commissioners of El Paso County, Colorado, hereby Proclaims the 14th day of January 2017 to be "Project Management Institute, Pikes Peak Regional Chapter Day."

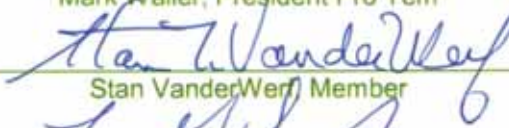

DONE THIS 26th day of January, 2017, at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF EL PASO COUNTY, COLORADO

Darryl Glenn, President

Mark Waller, President Pro Tem

Stan VanderWerk, Member

Longinos Gonzalez, Member

Peggy Littleton, Member

ATTEST:

Chuck Broerman
County Clerk and Recorder